

UNAFEI Professor Presents at the Asian Criminological Society

The 6th Asian Criminological Society Conference was held in Osaka, Japan from June 28th to 30th. The Asian Criminological Society (ACS) was founded in 2009, and its annual conferences were held in Macau in 2009, Chennai in 2010, Taipei in 2011, Seoul in 2012, and Mumbai in 2013. The conference in 2014 was the first one held in Japan.

Professor Akiko Tashiro of UNAFEI was invited as a plenary speaker, and made her presentation titled “Future Prospect of Volunteer Probation Officers in Japan: Suggestions from the Practices of East and Southeast Asian Countries”. Professor Nagai, Professor Akashi and Ms. Nishi of UNAFEI also attended the Conference. For more details on the conference, please see the Society’s website (<http://www.acs2014.com/>).

Professor Tashiro's presentation

(From left to right) Former UNAFEI Professors Dr. Someda and Mr. Shinkai; Mr. Moriya of the Research and Training Institute; Prof. Tashiro and Prof. Nagai of UNAFEI