

UNAFEI Professors Visit Southeast Asia

From June 26th to July 10th, Professor Iwashita, Professor Mio, Professor Moriya and Officer Hayasaka visited Malaysia, the Republic of Indonesia, the Republic of Singapore and Brunei Darussalam to research anti-corruption efforts in Southeast Asia and to prepare for the upcoming Regional Seminar on Good Governance for Southeast Asian Countries. The professors and staff visited several organizations, such as the Malaysia Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC), the Attorney General's Office of Indonesia, the Corruption Eradication Commission (KPK), the Corrupt Practices Investigation Bureau (CPIB), the Attorney General's Chambers and the Anti-Corruption Bureau of Brunei Darussalam. The professors and staff confirmed UNAFEI's cooperative relationships with those organizations and they enjoyed their stays in those countries.
