

The 1st International Training Course on Building Inclusive Societies (Online)
“Protection of the rights of crime victims including children”

1. Duration and Participants

- From 2 March to 17 2022
- 13 overseas participants from 8 jurisdictions

2. Programme Overview

Goal 16 of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development (SDGs) seeks to achieve peaceful and inclusive societies, and this training course aims to promote the role of criminal justice in achieving such societies. This programme offers participants an opportunity to share experiences and knowledge on effective measures to protect the rights of crime victims including children.

3. Lecturers

The following specialist lecturer from overseas and ad hoc lecturer from Japan, as well as UNAFEI faculty members, will give lectures:

- Specialist lecturer
 - Dr. John P. J. Dussich
Professor Emeritus
California State University, Fresno
“International Victimology: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow”
- Ad hoc lecturer
 - Dr. NAKA Makiko
Professor
Research Organization of Open Innovation and Collaboration, Ritsumeikan University
“Interviewing vulnerable witnesses:
Introduction to Forensic/ Investigative Interviews”