

The 154th International Training Course

“Stress Management of Correctional Personnel — Enhancing the Capacity of Mid-Level Staff”

1. Duration and Participants

- From 15 May to 28 June 2013
- Twelve overseas participants (including a Course Counsellor and two Observers) from eight countries/regions
- Seven Japanese participants

2. Programme Overview

From the perspective of the stress management of correctional personnel, we will discuss what capacity is necessary for all mid-level staff to manage stress and how to enhance such capacity. The objective of this programme is to give criminal justice officials from the Asia and Pacific region, and other countries, an opportunity to share experiences, to gain knowledge, and to achieve the goals of the criminal justice system by enhancing the capacity of mid-level staff.
