

The 161st International Training Course “Staff Training for Correctional Leadership”

1. Duration and Participants

- From 19 August to 18 September 2015
- Fourteen overseas participants from seven countries (including two observers)
- Four domestic participants

2. Programme Overview

To realize a safe society without crime, it is crucial for criminal justice organizations to perform law-enforcement duties as much as possible as well as enhance the organizational strength. Criminal justice organizations should maximize the performance of their staffs through appropriate training and the recruitment of quality staff members. Therefore, the capacity building is the one of the most important and urgent issues that criminal justice organizations must address.

In this training course, we will consider the planning and development of appropriate capacity-building programs, taking into account the current situation surrounding each criminal justice organization.
