

The 17th Seminar on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice for the People's Republic of China
“Law-Related Education”

1. Duration and Participants

- From 15 November to 30 November, 2011
- Thirteen participants from the Ministry of Justice; Legislative Affairs Commission of the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress; the Supreme People's Court; the Supreme People's Procuratorate; and the Ministry of Public Security

2. Programme Overview

Law-related education plays an important role in making the public aware of their rights and responsibilities, in fostering their understanding of the functions of law and justice which support their daily activities, and in cultivating a mindset among the citizenry to settle disputes according to the law.

This seminar offers an opportunity for Chinese officials to explore how these issues are addressed in Japan, thereby providing them with information on the latest practice in the field of law-related education.

Major topics for discussion include:

1. Basic concepts, implementing agents, purpose, contents and methodology of law-related education;
2. Measures to more effectively utilize social resources in dissemination of legal knowledge

3. Lectures

The following ad-hoc lecturers, as well as professors of UNAFEI, gave lectures:

- Mr. Koji Watanabe
Senior Fellow (former ambassador to Russia), Japan Center for International Exchange
“Legacy and Prospect for Japan-China Relations — In Search for Strategic Partnership of Mutual Benefits —”
- Ms. Kyoko Fuse
Attorney, Assigned to Judicial System Department, Minister's Secretariat, Ministry of Justice
“Law-related education in Japan”

Participants' arrival at UNAFEI

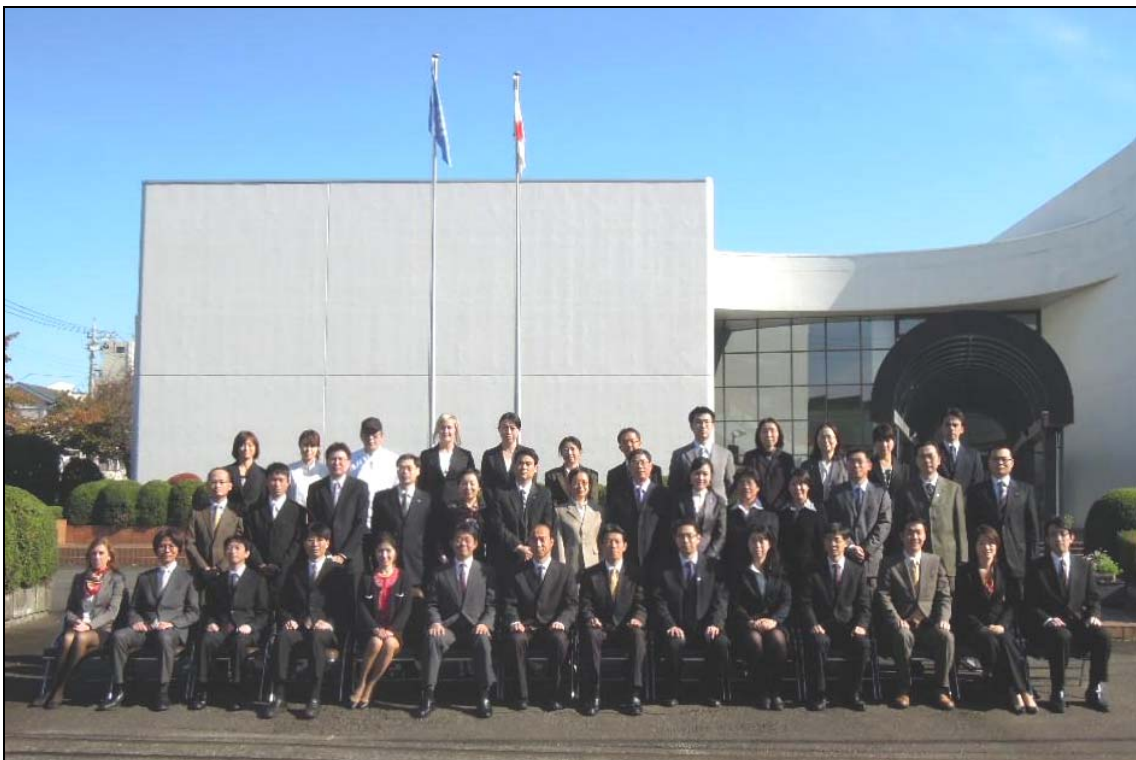

Conference Room

Visit to the Supreme Court

Closing Ceremony

Group Photo