

The 24rd UNCAC Training Programme

“Identifying, Tracing, Freezing, Seizing, Confiscating and Recovering Proceeds of Corruption:
Challenges and Solutions”

1. Duration and Participants

- From 2 to 28 November, 2022
- 30 overseas participants from 21 jurisdictions
- 2 participants from Japan

2. Programme Overview

This programme will mainly focus on the challenges that criminal justice practitioners face in identifying, tracing, freezing, seizing, confiscating and recovering proceeds of corruption and asset recovery, and it will explore solutions to those challenges. In particular, the programme will consider; (i) effective investigative techniques for identifying and tracing proceeds of corruption in each jurisdiction, (ii) accurate and expeditious preservation and secure confiscation of proceeds of corruption, and (iii) international cooperation.

Also, this programme, through lectures on best practices and the participants’ discussions, will enhance the participants’ knowledge of measures to improve anti-corruption efforts in their respective countries and establish a global network for the exchange of updated information on the practices of the respective countries.
