Introduction of lecturers

Mr. Stephen Pitts

Ambassador, Confederation of European Probation

Mr. Pitts started his career as a probation officer in London and worked for the Prison and Probation Services of England and Wales. He has supported the development of probation services internationally, and devised, developed and realized the World Congress on Probation and Parole. In 2025, he was awarded The Order of the Rising Sun, Gold Rays with Rosette, in recognition of his contributions to fostering professional cooperation between Japan and the UK in the field of probation and criminal justice.

Mr. Fadly Safie

Second Superintendent, Institution B4, Singapore Prison Service

Mr. Safie joined the Singapore Prison Service in 2004 after starting his career in the private sector. He went on to play a pivotal role in shaping new officers through training, pioneering field intelligence capabilities, and driving aftercare intelligence efforts to support offender reintegration into the community. With over two decades of experience, he brings a personal belief in second chances, community partnerships, and sustainable rehabilitation.
